Subject: Possible rescheduling of Aerojet July CAG meeting from 18 July to 25 July?

Good afternoon, Janis.

As we discussed briefly at last week's Area 40 community meeting, Chris Fennessy will be unable to attend the next CAG meeting scheduled for 18 July due to his vacation plans. Because Area 40 is a prominent topic at CAG meetings of late, Chris was willing to attend the CAG if it was postponed one week to 25 July. That is up to you, though, Janis.

Daewon, Jackie, and I are available either 18 July or 25 July for the CAG meeting. Alex and DTSC, you may also want to weigh in on your availability also for Janis to consider.

Those of us coming from SF would like to make plans for travel and technical meetings soon though, so please do let us know.

Thank you,
Lynn
